

Dear Perspective Sponsor:

Last April about 750 Buccaneers, Swashbucklers, Pirates, Gypsies and Historians attended the 1st annual pirate convention known as PirateCon. They came from all over the United States and Europe to plunder and pillage and share in merriment, music, drink, good deeds and pirate lore.

We know that this year PirateCon 2008 will be even bigger and better! With special guest ccx/stars from all three of Disney's Pirates of the Caribbean movies such as Marty Klebba, Vincent Lozano, Isaac C. Singleton Jr. and Treva Etienne. We are also happy to have Kendra Guffey from CBS's Pirate Master Television show.
